ENTRY GUIDELINES

2024

ABOUT

AHEAD is the only global awards programme for hospitality experience and design, hosting annual ceremonies in Singapore, New York, Dubai and London to celebrate the best new projects and the teams behind them.

Organised by the team behind industry-leading publication Sleeper, AHEAD is now in its seventh year and has become a touchstone of design excellence across the globe, judged by 60+ leading figures from the hospitality design world including architects, interior designers, developers and more.

ENTRY FAQs

How does AHEAD work?

The series is divided into four regions – Asia, the Americas, the Middle East & Africa (MEA), and Europe – with entries made according to projects locations.

What projects are eligible?

Hotels, resorts and other hospitality projects such as lodges, cabins and tented camps can enter providing that they opened within the eligible dates (see page 3). Please note, opening dates differ according to the project's region.

Who should enter?

We accept entries from a variety of companies, from architects and interior designers to PR representatives and marketing managers. However, we encourage all entrants to utilise the collaborative editing feature, whereby multiple teams can work together on the same entry simultaneously.

How can I enter?

Enter online by registering an account and submitting before the relevant deadline (see page 3). Start an entry, save your progress and come back to submit (see page 5).

How much is the entry fee?

Entry fees apply per category, and are dependent on date of entry and project location.

- Early fees (£220) apply to all entries until 1st March 2024 and offer a 20% saving.
- Standard fees (£275) then apply, with deadlines dependent on project region.
- Late fees (£330) come into force for two weeks following Standard entry deadlines.

You will then be redirected to our secure payment portal. Please note, your entry will only be submitted once payment has processed.

NEXT STEPS

JUDGING & SHORTLISTING

Once entries close, each regional judging panel votes for its shortlist, consisting of four to five projects per category (excluding Special Awards). If your entry is shortlisted, you will be contacted. Each panel then convenes for a final judging session to whittle down a winner in each category and determine recipients of the Special Awards.

AWARDS CEREMONIES

The winners will be announced at regional awards ceremonies in Singapore, New York, Dubai and London, for which each shortlisted entry will receive one complimentary ticket with the option to purchase any additional tickets. Tickets are now on sale.

AHEAD GLOBAL

The series concludes with a Global finale to decide the best of the best – the AHEAD 100 list is unveiled, comprising the projects that received the most votes from the judges, before the winner of the coveted Ultimate Accolade winner is announced, drawing the series to a close.
